Collection 4: Organic Rate

Expansion

Presence:Amount:

PresentLow

Explanation

I'm keeping off some Expansion from what looks like a failed pregnancy because of the time limit on my white hair, being burned until then. The burn seems to heal through time up until the event that it will occur, something of this nature. There is, also, some dinosaur milk that I am expelling through detoxing means. Some other types of contaminants, such as that one, have also come up to my awareness, so I am detoxing these things but they are causing Expansion. Otherwise, I am experiencing some forms of insemination occurring, I'm not exactly sure how, but I'll be in the shower and then feel some bubble all of a sudden in my vagina of semen, with no intruder to be found.

Maturity

Presence:Amount:

PresentHigh

Explanation

My Maturity seems to be growing every day at a more and more steady pace. I am very calm and collected about the events that are occurring, but I am feeling very heart sore about them, as well. My work is helping me to feel hope about what all is occurring and I am looking forward to seeing more fruits of my labour.

Evolution

Presence:Amount:

PresentLow

Explanation

I am not evolving too much in a negative way, such as from the dinosaur milk, previously. I am keeping at a good pace, detoxing out what all I can, whenever possible. I am evolving in certain ways, for Organic Preservation, that have been helping. One example is that what was previously dinosaur milk hiding my sound from murderers is now an Organic Change that God is developing in my being.
