Explanation

I am unable to have children until after my wedding with Prince Will. We are engaged, but he is having trouble recalling our time together, having to learn about over and over again. I think he is slowly starting to realise that I am his wife, naturally. It was always my desire to have children after marriage, so I am thankful for how this has begun to occur for us. I have his Divorce Papers filled out and am now only requiring an official copy of their Marriage Certificate, his signature, and his payment with postage. We can, then, send it in as a full application.
